

Community and Service

community awareness & understanding of:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the concept of community—including what “community” means, how communities are different and how they are similar, what makes a community • individuals in communities—including the role of the individual, the needs of the individual, the responsibilities of communities to their members • different communities—including the various forms of community, the needs of different communities, issues within communities, organizations within communities 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How does this unit apply to my communities? • What impact does my community have on the content of this unit? • Which communities does this unit affect?
reflection on:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • attitudes—including reflection upon different social patterns and ways of life, showing initiative • responsibilities—including ethical implications of activity or inactivity within the community, using personal strengths to enhance communities, identifying personal strengths & limitations 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How can my learning help my communities? • How can my communities help me learn? • What should I do?
involvement through service in terms of:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • community involvement—including types of involvement, effects on communities at various levels, personal involvement • being an active contributor— including showing willingness & skills to respond to the needs of others, coming up with solutions to actively resolve issues 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What needs to be done? What can I do? • How is my involvement helping me develop?